Madrid, September 5.

WE have Advice from Cadiz, that the Intendant Sig. Varas having Information privately given him, that a conſiderable Sum in Pieces of Eight was concealed on board the Admiral of the Flota, and had not been regiſtred, he cauſed ſtrict Search to be made, and it was found and ſiezed. This having alarmed ſeveral Perſons who had unregiſtred Silver concealed on board the Flota, they went before the proper Officer at Cadiz, and declared the Value of what they had ſo concealed, deſiring to be allowed to pay the ſame Indulto for it as for the regiſtred Effects. There has been another Inſurrection of the Populace at the Havana: The Occaſion was this, The General of the Flota ſent Order to the Biſhop of that Place to imbark for Spain, to give an Account of his Behaviour in the Time of the Commotion raiſed there laſt Year, when the Farm of Tobacco was deſigned to be eſtabliſhed for the King's Account. But the Council, as alſo the new Governour and the Officers, interceeding that the Biſhop might not be carried off till his Majeſty's Pleaſure were further known, he was allowed to ſtay, and the People returned to their Obedience. The Preſident of the Cruſada is put at the Head of the Tribunal of the Inquiſition, to ſupply the Room of the Inquiſitor-General Molines during his Confinement. 'Tis ſaid the Marqueſs of Pozzobueno, who was Governour of Portolongone, is nominated by his Catholick Majeſty to go to Sweden, as his Miniſter and Plenipotentiary.

Venice, Sept. 9. Sig. Diedo being choſen Dean of the Ducal Church of St. Mark, made his publick Entry on the 5th Inſtant, and took Poſſeſſion of that Dignity. The ſame Day came in a Man of War, having on board General Sala and other Officers, who came from Corfu. On Wedneſday arrived a Ship in 18 Days from Corfu, the Maſter of which reports, that the Day before his Departure one of the largeſt Spaniſh Men of War, and another of the third Rate, came into that Port. We have Advice from Zant, that the Fleet of this Republick was arrived there, and that ſome of the Ships were pretty much damaged in the Engagement with the Turks, in which about a Thouſand Men were loſt on our Side: The ſame Letters ſay, that the Turkiſh Fleet having been much ſhattered in that Engagement, had put into the Bay of Coron to refit. Sig. Ruzzini, who aſſiſted in the Congreſs at Paſſarowitz, as Ambaſſadour Plenipotentiary of this State, is nominated by the Senate to go Ambaſſadour Extraordinary to the Ottoman Porte.

Vienna, Sept. 10. Sir Robert Sutton, the King of Great Britain's Ambaſſadour for the Mediation of the Peace concluded at Paſſarowitz, arrived here Yeſterday: He came from Paſſarowitz on the 24th, having been preſent on the 21ſt at the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Treaties between the Emperour, the Republick of Venice, and the Grand Signior. Count Colliers, the Miniſter-Mediatour on the Part of the States General, who was alſo preſent at the Exchanging of the ſaid Ratifications, ſet
